

Catapult Missions Mission Team Discipline Policy

Matthew 18:15-17 “And if your brother sins, go and reprove him in private; if he listens to you, you have won your brother. “But if he does not listen to you, take one or two more with you, so that BY THE MOUTH OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES EVERY FACT MAY BE CONFIRMED. And if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax-gatherer.”

It is our intent to follow biblical patterns of discipline and encouragement within the confines of our ministry trips.

Catapult Missions will outline the procedures that will be followed so as to avoid as many misunderstandings as possible. You are asked to read the outlined procedures below, sign the consent form, and return it to us. If issues of sin or disobedience come to light, rest assured, we will follow the steps below to bring resolution to the situation.

The reasoning is simple. These trips are attempting to open up countries to renewal and revival and therefore attract spiritual warfare. We realize that if you are not right with God, the accuser will find an opening and use it against you. In signing this consent form, you agree to abide by the decisions of Catapult Missions leadership and their collective wisdom in handling such matters.

We realize that it is difficult if not inappropriate for everyone to know the particulars of any given situation and that you must trust those in authority over you to seek the Lord in their decisions. In signing this you agree to abide by their decisions totally. You must understand that we want nothing more than to work side by side with each of you. However, we must be realistic as the apostles were, and follow the guidelines they have laid before us. Believe me when I tell you that there have been ministry trips almost destroyed because of one person’s disobedience or sin. It is because of this that we have endeavored to bring order where the enemy would want confusion and destruction. We are at war and therefore compliance with the decisions is not optional but mandatory.

1. We believe that if you have a problem with anyone you are to go to that person, without going to anyone else first. Go and attempt to bring understanding and resolution. If it is with someone of the opposite sex, then talk with him or her in a place where others are around but cannot hear. Many times what you consider a problem is only a misunderstanding and bringing it to their attention often brings resolution.
2. If you find no resolution after you have talked with them, you are to bring it to your Team Leader (Darin or Carolina Torbert). Then the Team Leader will determine what the problem is, who is at fault, and bring closure to the situation.

3. If what you are involved in is a sin that cannot, at the discretion of leadership, be taken care of in a timely manner or would affect the team in an adverse way, leadership reserves the right to return you home at your expense.
4. In signing this agreement you not only agree to follow these procedures for discipline, if you are directly involved, but you also agree as a team member to follow the directions of leadership regarding other team members.
